Subject: Schneider Kalahari collection update

Greetings:

The John Schneider Kalahari collection is now on line and can be accessed by going to:

<http://www.trinityminerals.com/new.html>

Other news: I will be leaving for Brazil in a week or so and hope to come back with some interesting items from there. There will be a large update of specimens from that trip and also the East Coast show around mid August.

If you wish to be removed from this mailing list you can do so by visiting:
