Subject:  Final Call for Auction 107! **

Greetings!

TMG Mineral Auction #107 will close tomorrow night (Wednesday) beginning at 8 PM central time (6 pm pacific). This will be our first Wednesday closing of an auction so now is the time to check and adjust bids if needed. It's also a great time to place your bids! I'd really like to find everything a home before the Denver Show and welcome all offers on these high quality specimens. No reasonable offer will be refused.

The auction is the best place to win top quality pieces at the lowest prices you will see anywhere on the web so don't miss out on the final day of bidding!

Auction 107 is located at this link: (no registration is required)

Good luck to all!

Kevin
