Subject: Updated Auction Schedule

Hi David

For regular multidealer auctions through early October, all auctions will begin on either Tuesday or Saturday around 11 am or noon CST. The Tuesday auctions will close on Thursdays at 8 pm CST. The Saturday auctions will close on Mondays at 8 pm CST. These will be supplemented by special auctions either for benefits or individual dealers taking opportunities to show you the depth and breadth of their offerings.

Check out the current auction at:

Take care and have a great day,

Keith

ps, send me an email at kqhayes@earthlink.net with the heading remove if you don't want to be part of the auction site.
