Subject: website sale at Dan Weinrich Minerals

I will be on the road for about 10 days. While I am gone I have decided to have a sale!

The sale will start sometime on the morning of Monday October 9, 2006.

At this time I will post approximately 50 specimens from my website into special "Sale Galleries". These specimens will be on offer at discounts from 30% - 60% off their regular listed prices. The sale will last through October 18.

Watch my home page for further announcements!
