Subject: News from the 2007 Tucson Show

Greetings from rainy Tucson:

I have prepared three reports on what is new here in at the 2007 Tucson Show. Some interesting new find wire gold from Venezuela, some of the world's finest known blue lawsonites from Marin County, California and new rohodonites from both Peru and Brazil. To see what is new here and also see the specimens posted thus far visit:

<http://www.mineralshows.com/tucson2007/>

There are non stop auctions also for your consideration at:

<http://www.mineral-auctions.com>

There is a lot more to cover over the next 10 days and scores of specimens to photograph and post to the web.

Cheers from Tucson,
