Subject: Greenside Minerals' First Show

Hi,

Greenside Minerals is pleased to announce we will be trading at our first mineral show next month. The Oxford Mineral Show (England) on Sunday 8th July will be the place to find us. We will be displaying Cornish specimens that are not available on our website. We will also have previously unseen pieces from Africa, Europe and China.

If you're at the show, please come to our table and say hello - we will be pleased to see you.

For show details please visit:
