I'm finally in Tucson and things are off to a quick start already! This update is our early bird update and will be the first of many to come. It consists of 60 new specimens in three new Tucson 2008 mineral rooms. The selection is wide and varied so there should be something for everyone!

One thing you will notice is the incredible collection of pseudomorphs that will be appearing in the first several updates. This collection consists of some of the finest pseudomorph specimens I've seen a long time and many are very rare and or possibly unique! If you're a pseudomorph collector, the following updates should be of special interest.

The new Tucson 2008 Updates begin with these links:

The Westward Look Mineral Show opens on Friday, February the 8th and runs for four days. I hope to see you there!

Kevin
