Having trouble displaying our pictures?

Dear Dave,

AA Mineral Specimens has been having a great time putting more of our stock on our website. This week, we've a good variety of international specimens. As the range of locations is quite large, we've arranged this edition of our newsletter by region!

We are heading off to the Murray Bridge Gemboree in South Australia on Wednesday March 19th, and will return to Sydney on Friday March 28th. We will have a stall there for the four days of the Gemboree. As usual while we are away, our email address will be operating. At MurrayBridge, we will have good variety of our Broken Hill specimens as well as a range of specimens from the rest of the world.

We also have a late entry into the Ku-ring-gai Garden Festival on Saturday March 29th and Sunday March 30th. We will be at Stall 92 in the St Ives Showground in Sydney.

We look forward to seeing you, if you go to either of the events.

Best wishes
Susan and Bruce
