Hi all,

Today's we have a very large update of Kalihari Minerals on both e-Rocks and the TVM website.

Colin Owen has graced us with a super selection of specimens from his inventory, 54 specimens in all.

Also in conjunction is the first release of specimens from the main collection of Warren Taylor.

This suite of 66 specimens is on-line on both TVM and e-Rocks.

More from Warren's collection and e-Rocks soon!

Best wishes,

Best Wishes
