Subject: * The Exceptional Mineral Auction Closes Tomorrow *

Greetings,

The current running Exceptional Mineral Auction will close on Monday, Sept. 29th, at 8 PM central time / 9 PM eastern. Once again, there won't be a staggered close so all final bids need to be in place by 8 PM sharp, with your maximums listed just in case you are overbid at the last second. Proxy bidding is available for all bidders including those who may be in time zones that don't allow for participation during the closing.

I've added a "Make An Offer" feature to this auction to try to get things moving a bit. There are many fine specimens without auction bids and these specimens are open to all reasonable offers. If you'd like to make an offer, please e-mail and I'll consider it and or e-mail back my counter-offer.

The link to the mineral auction is located here:

Good luck to all during the close!

Kevin
