Hi All,

To try out our new page layouts and provide some interest over the US holiday time, we have just opened a Thanksgiving Special Auction .

This will start at 18:30Hrs Server Time, with 40 super things from nearly all the current Sellers.

Later today my own TVM Mark's Birthday Auction will be finishing at 23:00Hrs UK Time.

Some service points:

1. The new software runs a little slow - we apologise for this and are working to clear this problem.
2. Our server is also near its limits, and will be replaced very soon.
3. Because of above, if you are bidding at Auction close time, try to bid a little early, and be patient if pages come down slowly.

This should help you successfully place your bids,

Many Thanks

Best Wishes
