Subject: * * Update! The Final Denver 2008 Update is Online! * *

Greetings!

The Final Update for Denver Show 2008 is finally online!

Yes, I know it's 2009 but this update ran a couple of weeks late. I'm glad it did because it allowed me to add an additional twenty items into the update, including some incredible specimens from the Ferris mineral collection at newly discounted prices! In this update you'll find Pink Elbaite from Elba, Fluorites from around the world, Bisbee Azurite and Rams Horn Gypsum, exceptional gem specimens from the Gabriel Risse collection, Jonas Mine Rubellites, Elmwood specimens, Rhodonite in Galena, rare purple Fluorite on Stibnite, gemmy Tanzanite, Cinnabar from Arkansas, new specimens from the Edward David collection, and much, much more!!

This is a very exciting update and I think there should be something for everyone in the offering!

The links to the three new mineral rooms are located here:

Thanks again!
