We have just added a small set of beautiful gemmy green fluorites from China to the website. These are becoming more scarce on the market, especially in good quality.

Auctions are closing this evening. This week is especially interesting with fine specimens including a gem kunzite, two excellent uvites from Brazil, a choice Chinese sphalerite, Ruby, pyromorphite from Germany, an excellent roselite, Indian green apophyllite, a fine Indian stellerite, Brazilian tourmaline, Grossular from Quebec, and even old Collector Edition stamps of minerals from the Barlow collection.

Look for us in Tucson - now in Three Locations! Inn Suites Lobby (wholesale), Westward Look Show(top specimens), Convention Center - Main Show.
