New auction specimens are now posted.

I believe that this is one of our "strongest" auctions yet. There are a lot of great specimens available. Some of the highlights include:

- * a large choice columbite crystal from Brazil
- * gem yellow spodumene from Mozambique
- * beautiful large Elmwood calcite specimen - great color!
- * choice gemmy willemite from Tsumeb
- * large green crystallized smithsonite/mimetite from Tsumeb
- * several dozen aesthetic and colorful thumbnail specimens
- * a superb inesite from China
- * neat large babingtonite double terminated crystal from China
- * a gemmy pezzottaite
- * classic Cornish chalcocite thumbnail

Plus many, many others. All of these at reserve prices at least 75% or more less than the regular retail price. True bargains are available!

As always, we welcome your comments and suggestions.
