Subject: New Pyrolusite Gallery Update

Welcome to Wrights Rock Shop

I created Pyrolusite Gallery with specimens from the recent find in Akela, Little Florida Mountains, New Mexico, on 9/19/09. The pyrolusite crystals are not a thin crust, but extremely bright, aesthetic crystals of pyrolusite stacked on top of each other. I persuaded the field collector to release his last small hoard of pyrolusite. This is the most of the remainder of the pocket.

I will be shipping the pieces after 9/23/09.
