Subject: Correction re Wahrenonga Village Fair

Dear Dave Barthelmy,

In last week's newsletter, I made a mistake in our last newsletter regarding the Wahrenonga Village Fair. I used 'copy and paste' and ended up with the wrong address!

The Wahrenonga Village Fair will be held tomorrow (Sunday 6th December) in the main street of Wahrenonga, NSW and the surrounding streets. We will have our stand in the car park and look forward to seeing any of you who are able to attend.

Best wishes - and apologies for any inconvenience

Susan (and Bruce).
