I've been receiving a lot of e-mails asking me to better explain the $500 in free Sale Room minerals offer and this notice should answer all questions.

The Offer Works Like This....

If you purchase $1000 worth of minerals from either the new Tucson updates, the Exceptional Mineral Rooms, Denver 2009 Rooms, or Tucson 2009 Rooms, you can pick $500 in Sale Room mineral specimens free of charge as an added bonus. Please keep in mind that the Sale Room minerals are discounted 50% from their online website prices so you are actually receiving $1000 worth of Sale Room specimens based on the listed website prices. You can choose one specimen or several, just as long as they equal $500 after the 50% discount is deducted from the Sale Room website prices.

I think this is what caused most of the confusion. It might also have helped if I had remembered to include the Sale Room link!

As always, I welcome your questions and comments!
