Subject: New Excalibur Mineral List #21002 Ready!!
Attachments: 21002.doc

Greetings All,

We are buried in snow and frantically getting ready for our New York City Show this weekend, but our new list is attached. The Word document is filled with the usual assortment of old classics, many new species, and other interesting specimens. This material will NOT be available at the show without prior arrangement due to time constraints. Plan accordingly!

Read on!
