The Best Offer Auction Closes Thursday!

Finally! After being offline for the past five days because of server upgrades, I'm happy to say the Best Offer Auction is back up and running! The auction will close tomorrow as scheduled and all bids placed when we were offline have been entered and should be showing on tonight's update. Now is the perfect time to check, and if necessary, adjust your bids. There are some incredible items which still need opening offers so please check these out and take advantage of the very low reserve levels. I'd like to see every specimen find a new home for the Holidays! The Auction will close at 8 PM central time / 9 PM eastern and all bids must be in prior to that time.

Good luck and thanks again for taking part in the auction!
