This week I posted some beautiful minerals including fire agate from Mexico; fluorite from several uncommon UK localities; amazonite with smoky quartz from Colorado; plus several mineral-geology books with several about New Hampshire. Some items are being relisted at reduced prices.

Per your request, this is special advanced notice that the minerals can now be viewed online.

Two pages of new listings were posted at:

I hope you enjoy this new group of minerals.

Sincerely,

John Betts, owner
