Subject: * * Update - The Tucson Mineral Auction Closes Tomorrow * *

Just one more day of bidding after today

The Tucson Show Mineral Auction will begin closing tomorrow night on Wednesday, June 26th at 9 PM central time / 10 PM eastern.

Normally this is where I list the specimens that need bids but this time there are literally too many to list. Summer auctions are typically slow as this one has been and that's where you find your biggest bargains. I welcome all reasonable offers to help me find new homes for all the fine minerals in the auction. We even have a Barite specimen with a $1 reserve that still needs a bid and that's hard to believe. If you haven't visited the auction yet, now is the time to browse on through and take advantage of the low bidding levels!
