Subject: Weekly Mineral Update tonight

Dakota Matrix Minerals

Aug. 1, 2014

Hi Folks

Just a quick note to let you know our Weekly Update will be tonight at 6pm US Mountain Time. The Daily Five will be released at 4:00PM, as in 15 minutes or less.

Next Monday (Aug. 4), Tuesday and Wednesday we will have sales on the Daily Fives.

Tonight's New Additions will include some rare but mostly uncommon minerals from the Phillips Collection.

We are presently in a "holding pattern", much like Sand Hill Cranes as they migrate south. In other words, we are throttled down, as we realize many of you are on vacation or have better things to do besides buy rocks (right?). Well, if I'm wrong, keep checking the updates, you will still see some good stuff, but we are basically saving the better stuff for the Fall and Winter when you have more viewing time. You will again see much more of the McConlogue collection and hold-outs from the Phillips not to mention new IMA minerals from the Blue Lizard mine, Chile, and other great localities.

Our Special Edition schedule is in the works for the Fall and Winter Season also.

Happy Hunting!

Tom
