The Year End Mineral Sale

With the Holidays and 2016 rapidly approaching, our annual Year End Mineral Clearance Sale is going strong as we enter its third week! As most folks know, we have a year end mineral sale in December to reduce inventory prior to the New Year. This helps with our taxes and gives everyone a chance to save lots of money on their mineral purchases. It's also a great way to shop for gifts if you have other mineral collectors in the family, or even give a gift to yourself!

Our specimens are now being sold on a best offer basis. If you see some items you like, just email your best offer and we'll either accept it or work out a price that makes everyone happy. All showrooms are included in the sale and for this week, the Exceptional Mineral Showrooms have been updated and restocked!
