The Denver 2016 Mineral Auctions

As many of you probably know by now, the ExceptionalMinerals.com website has been down since the middle of last week due to server migration difficulties. As a result, the Pre-Tucson Sale has been interrupted until the website is back up and running. That won't stop the new auction however as I have re-routed the auction page to run from our original website and the link below will take you directly to that webpage. 30 specimens are up for bid this time, with many new specimens from the show not seen before and some of our more popular items from the showrooms. I hope everyone will take part in the bidding and I look forward to seeing you at the Westward Look Mineral Show next month!
