 The Tucson Show 2018 Mineral Auctions ***
The Second $485 Opening Bid Auction!

The first $485 Auction was very popular so we're opening another one today! This auction features an incredible offering of beautiful, high quality specimens from Tucson, almost all at the very low opening reserve of $485! There will be something for all collections in this auction and I hope everyone will take part in the action, place a bid or two, and win a beautiful new show specimen!

And to make the auction even more exciting - There's also an offering of more expensive showroom specimens with very low reserves set at Keystone or less! Please feel free to make offers below the reserves if you wish but make certain you make your best offers so you increase your odds of winning. The leading or highest bids will win on closing night! Here are some of the auction rules:

You may bid as high or as low as you wish
The highest bids will win on closing night
Proxy bids are allowed and encouraged

Silent maximum bids are allowed and always a good idea
There is no limit of the number of items you can bid on
