* The Tucson Show 2019 Mineral Auctions *

The newest exciting Mineral Auction is ready for bidding and best offers!

This auction introduces 30 fine mineral specimens which are all offered at huge discounts to their actual show prices. Most suggested opening reserves are set at less than half price and this is true for even the high end specimens.

As always, auction participants can bid under the reserve or just above the reserve. The highest bids at closing will be declared the winners and bids made under the reserve will need to be approved and may receive a counter bid. It doesn't get much better than this fine offering of high quality mineral specimens and I hope everyone will take part. Have fun and Good Luck!!!
